

KEY, LOCK & LANTERN

KL&L members are involved with all of the many fascinating aspects of railroad and transportation history, from conducting research to collecting every type of railroad hardware, paper, and transportation memorabilia.

Key, Lock & Lantern has been serving its members since 1966, sponsoring an annual convention for railroad historians and collectors, publishing a quarterly printed magazine, hosting an internet site, and producing a digital railroad preservation newsletter.

Anyone with an interest in railroad history and collecting will benefit from membership in Key, Lock & Lantern
